Blue Dart-DHL Relationship

On 12th September 2002, Blue Dart and DHL signed a Sales Alliance Agreement which came into effect from 1st October 2002 on a principal to principal basis. This alliance was further strengthened in 2005 when DHL Express (Singapore) Pte. LTD. acquired 81.03% stake in Blue Dart and currently holds 75% stake since 23rd November, 2012

While Blue Dart is the leader of the air express industry in India, DHL Express is the No.1 international air express services provider in India offering its customers the entire spectrum of express services from international air express to high-end logistics solutions including repair and return, strategic inventory management and direct express inventory distribution.

International air parcels, even if booked through other private courier companies, are generally handled by DHL courier. The booking charges by DHL, in general, are higher compared to charges levied by other private well established courier companies. Below is one such reliable Mumbai based courier.

4. OM International Courier Cargo Services (International Courier)

The service person collects items, packs in company's corrugated boxes and issues receipt for the payment via email before leaving the premises.

Add: 212/A, Bapu Balwant Building, Ground Floor, J.S.S. Road, Corner of Kelewadi Near Girgaon Gaiwadi, Mumbai – 400 004. Cell: 98690 42220
email: cs.omcourierservices@gmail.com, www.omcourier.in

The courier operates from Mumbai whose services were used for sending parcels with home prepared food items, sweets, mixtures (Snacks / Farsan), spices (both powders and dried stuff), homemade masala powders, kitchen items, utensils and electric appliances apart from clothes to US and Canada during the past 10 years very reliably. The company has tie up with DHL for overseas parcels. They offer Regular and Express Services. When booked on Monday, via express service, the parcels get delivered in US, as far away as California, on Friday (i.e. within 5 days), a proven service for sending perishable materials across continents.
