

Golf Clubs

<https://www.holidify.com/pages/golf-courses-in-mumbai-2048.html>

This ancient game sees its encouraging rise in the present times as well. Also referred to as the "Rich man's game", golf usually is found in posh hubs all throughout the world and one such place is Mumbai. The reason why the game may be called so is due to its expensive character and laid back sportive style. Although most of the golf courses are restricted to club members, there are a few that invite the general public and tourists to have a golfing experience. These golf clubs not only offer a good time for playing the sport and socialising with your golf pals or going solo, they also provide learning sessions that are open to both children and adults.

Here are the golf courses in Mumbai that are open to the general public and tourists:

1. Bombay Presidency Golf Club (BPGC)

<https://www.bpgc-golf.com/>

Established in the year 1927, the BPGC is one of Mumbai's oldest and most famous golf courses. The vast arena is stretched across 6184 yards and is an 18- hole golf course. It is situated in Chembur, East Mumbai, a 16-minute drive from Mumbai Airport. Lifetime memberships are closed currently, but individuals could avail memberships for shorter periods of time, such as the corporate membership and various others listed under their membership schemes. The club also has a club-house with a swimming pool, health club, accommodation, and restaurants.

Although the club is elite with regard to its membership and facilities for the members which is mostly the case with most of the golf course in Mumbai, there are some amenities open for the general public as well.

The club visits peak between November and May.

Closed on Mondays.

Timings - 6:30 AM till sunset, which is around 7:00 PM

Membership Rules: Green fees to be paid by accompanied member guests is INR 2760 during weekdays and INR 3300 during weekends or public holidays
Cart fees and Caddy fees are INR 500 and INR 150 respectively
30-minute learning session with professionals for member guests is INR 5130
Non-member guests are not allowed.

2. Kharghar Valley Golf Course (KVGC)

One of the best golf courses in Mumbai that open up for its local and international golfing enthusiasts. While all the other major golf courses are expensively restricted to members and their associations, the KVGC provides a great start for those who are excited to take up a golfing career and provides a fulfilling exposure to those who just want to have a good time.

This 11 hole golf course encompassing a whole 103 hectares of land is situated in the Kharghar valley. What adds to its scenic beauty are the mountain ranges, lavish greenery, and the renowned Pandav kada waterfall that bracket the golf course.

It is around 4 kilometres from the Kharghar Railway station and an hour and a half drive from Mumbai Airport.

Closed on Mondays.

Timings - 6:30 AM to 4:00 PM

Timings for learning sessions - 6:30 AM to 3:30 AM

5. Willingdon Sports Club

<https://www.golftripz.com/golf-course/willingdon-sports-club>

A prestigious sports and leisure club set up in the British period, Willingdon Sports Club (WSC) features an 18 holes, par 65 golf course with many criss crossing holes in a relatively easy but remarkably tight layout with dense and mature vegetation. Given the prime locality in the south part of Mumbai, in which Willingdon golf club is situated, one as a golfer should feel fortunate that a golf course exists here. Again, just as for most golf courses situated within city limits in India, it is important to plan a round at the Willingdon golf course on weekdays and avoid the weekends as far as possible.

6. 9 Aces Golf Greens & Academy

<https://www.9acesgolf.com/>

The 9 Aces Golf Greens & Academy is a 2-hour drive from Mumbai, set in the beautiful Western Ghats. With a unique 9-hole layout and splendid views of the hills, it is an ideal option for a short getaway for the golf enthusiasts. Each of the holes bears a name that is key to scoring well. The hilly terrain with water on most of the holes and the slopes on fairways, make up the challenges at the 9 Aces golf course. The course also has an island green. Stop at the '19th', a small food & beverage venue, shaped like a hut, on the course. It provides for a great meal and a relaxing environment along with beautiful views of the course.

Golf learning lessons and game improvement tactics are also provided at the 9 Aces Golf Academy, by professional trainers. Driving range and putting green areas offer fun practice facilities.
