

Waterfalls around Mumbai

Pandavkada falls, Bhivpuri falls, Randha falls, Umbrella falls, Bhagirath falls, Dudhsagar waterfalls, Dhobhi waterfalls, Thoseghar waterfalls, Vihigaon Waterfall, Lingmala waterfalls and many more.

If you are bored of weekend outings that involve visiting shopping malls and watching movies, there are so many waterfalls near Mumbai that will offer you much-needed change in scenery and mood. Ranging from 30 feet high to 853 feet high, these spectacular cascades brushing their way through verdant forests and rocky mountains, before finally plummeting into large pools are exquisite.

With purity of air and freshness of atmosphere, these sites promise to disconnect you from the clamour and pollution of cities and transport you to a world of serenity. There are so many waterfalls in Mumbai and around its territorial limits that you may not have heard of them all before. Explore these falls with your friends or family, you will not regret your decision.

Waterfalls like Vajrai Falls and Kune Falls, owing to their aesthetic appeal, qualify for excellent spots to indulge in nature and landscape photography. Most of these waterfalls including Bhivpuri and Dudhsagar waterfalls also feature some exciting trekking trails nearby that make these sites perfect treats for adventure junkies as well.

The contents are loaded from the above website “as-it-is” and the credit goes to the web developers of thrillophilia.com for making the information available on the internet for the benefit of viewers. Viewers may check the website for latest information and other useful links.

1. Pandavkada Falls (31 km from Mumbai)

One of those sites that deserve to be on your bucket list of weekend getaways near Mumbai, Pandavkada Falls is a retreat from the city's chaotic and noisy atmosphere. Whether you are looking forward to spending some picnic time with your family in peace or you want to have an eventful outing with your friends, this natural attraction is recommended.

The waterfall plunges into a shallow pool from a rocky gorge of approximately 107 meters in height. Due to its proximity to Mumbai, Pandavkada Falls is a famous hangout spot among locals as well as tourists.

Height of the waterfall: 107 meters

Distance from Mumbai: 31 km

Location: Khargar, Navi Mumbai

2. Bhagirath Falls (66 km from Mumbai)

A spectacle of nature near Mumbai, Bhagirath Falls is a highly recommended picnic option for the residents of Mumbai and Pune due to its proximity to these cities. Since the place is not known by many, you can visit it to find respite for your tired soul and spend some moments of serenity with your dear ones.

Admire the beauty of nature around, have some hot snacks, and create memories for a lifetime. You can also indulge in several adventure activities here including rock climbing and rappelling. Bhagirath Falls is, undoubtedly, one of the most gorgeous waterfalls near Mumbai.

Distance from Mumbai: 66 km

Location: Bedisgaon, Maharashtra

3. Bhivpuri Waterfalls (80 km from Mumbai)

A stream snaking through rocky terrain shrouded in lush greenery and splitting into various courses before hitting the ground – Bhivpuri Waterfall is rightly counted among the most scenic waterfalls near Mumbai. Throngs of tourists and city-dwellers can be seen here throughout the year as the broad stream falls with a loud roar during all seasons.

4. Kune Falls (80 km from Mumbai)

Your exploration of the highest waterfalls in India is incomplete without a visit to Kune Falls, plummeting from a height of 200 metres in two sections. Claimed to be the 14th highest waterfall in the country, Kune Falls serve as an excellent weekend getaway from major cities like Mumbai and Pune.

5. Vihigaon Waterfall (115 km from Mumbai)

An Absolute favorite among nature lovers and adventure seekers in the region, Vihigaon Waterfall features nature in its pristine form. The charm of the cascades coupled with the beauty verdant Western Ghats creates dream-like scenery.

The pool created by the waterfall is shallow, so you can enjoy a dip here and watch all your sorrows and worries escaping your mind. Come here with your family or friends, a day full of joy is guaranteed. Besides, from nature photography to rappelling, a wide range of fun experiences are at your avail at Vihigaon Waterfall. Since the site is visited by throngs of people all around the year, choose the time of visit carefully to avoid an unpleasant experience.

Height of the waterfall: 120 feet

Distance from Mumbai: 115 km

Location: Vihigaon, Maharashtra

6. Chinchoti Waterfall (60 km from Mumbai)

One of the most pristine waterfalls near Mumbai, Chinchoti Falls in Vasai is a favourite among leisure travellers and trekkers. Thickets of lush jungles line the two trekking trails that converge at the falls, and right between them, the magnificent falls plunge down from a height of 125 feet, creating a pool.

While the best time to visit Chinchoti is in the monsoons, quite a few travellers flock the spot during warm summers to take a dip in the cool waters or in the winters to enjoy a leisurely picnic while admiring the beauty of the falls. Reaching the falls does require a short walk, so make sure you wear your most comfortable, well-gripping footwear.

Height of waterfall: 125 ft

Distance from Mumbai: 60 kms

Location: Chinchoti, Naigaon, Maharashtra 401303

7. Malshej Falls (126 km from Mumbai)

One of the first names that come to mind when looking for waterfalls to trek or hike to is the Malshej Falls. Situated in the picturesque hill-station of Malshej, four hours from Mumbai, the waters of Malshej Falls cascade down beautifully from a steep height of over 1200 feet. Although Malshej is lined with numerous waterfalls, this one is prominent as it adds to the beauty of the surrounding greenery dotted with freshwater lakes.

Malshej has something for everyone. You'll spot unique insects flying and crawling around, which are a treat for nature lovers. A rare sight here is the majestic flamingos, seen especially in the monsoons. Lastly, needless to say, there's the delightful waterfall that serves as the perfect spot to leisurely relax in the lap of luxury, without a care in the world!

Height of waterfall: 1213 feet

Distance from Mumbai: 126 km

Location: Maharashtra 421401